Dear JORDAN,

Congratulations! We're pleased to have you as an American Safety & Health Institute (ASHI)-authorized Instructor. Your Instructor authorization level permits you to train and certify students in the following ASHI programs:

Basic First Aid; CPR/AED; Wilderness First Aid; Bloodborne Pathogens; Emergency Oxygen Administration; Child and Babysitting Safety

Your Instructor card is attached to this letter – please ensure your Training Center has a copy and keep this one for your records. You must remain affiliated with an active Training Center in order to maintain your active status; your Training Center is responsible for managing your class rosters and maintaining your certification materials.

As part of your affiliation with ASHI you will have access to the online Instructor Portal which contains the following tools:

- Access to electronic classroom curriculum documents (e.g. rosters, evaluations)
- Enrichment courses for professional development
- Access to the online store (Note: only Training Centers may purchase certification material)
- Regulatory information
- Access to an electronic copy of your instructor card for easy digital recordkeeping
- Ability to update your contact information online

To secure access to the Instructor Portal please visit www.hsi.com and click Sign in. If you are a new Instructor, your Instructor number is your login ID and your default password is 654321.

Login today as this is a temporary password and it will expire in ten days. If you are an existing Instructor who has renewed or updated recently, you may continue using your previous login information. For any assistance using your login information, please contact us at 877 440 6049.

Welcome to American Safety & Health Institute, a member of the Health & Safety Institute family of brands. We're glad to have you on board!
